Moorland School employs a professional NASENDCO and T/A support for children with SEND is made available based upon need. The school does not make additional charges for this, but this support is limited within our budget constraints.

School uniform is an additional charge. Uniform can be purchased directly from our uniform provider, RVS, The Old Bank House, Wellgate, Clitheroe, BB7 2DP. Telephone 01200 443733/07966 250094.

Please refer to our contractual terms and conditions which are always included with your invoice when sent electronically, as well as being printed on the reverse of your hard copy invoice. Please also note that, unlike most competitor schools, Moorland School does not make any application charges.

With effect from 1 January 2023 airport transfers for boarding pupils at the beginning and end of each term and half term holiday are included within the school fees, provided that journeys take place no more than 48 hours before or after the published holiday dates. For any transport requests outside of this period, a flat charge of £60 will be made.

EFL support is available and this will be charged for separately based upon need, parental wishes and an IELTS assessment.

A £1,000 deposit will be required for Tier 4 applications, to support CAS allocation for UK immigration purposes, this deposit will only be refundable against the first term's fees.
